

The Daily Courant.

Monday, May 6. 1706.

The Capitulation which the Conde de Taroca General of Battallia in the Army of his Portugueze Majesty, made by Order of the most excellent Marquis das Minas General of the said Army, with Don Miguel Garca Marthal de Campo of the Armies of Castile, and Governour of Alcantara, for the Surrender of the said Place. April 14. 1706.

THE said Marshal de Campo, with all his Garrison, Officers and Soldiers, with their Arms, Baggage, Colours, Colours flying, and all other usual Honours, shall march out at the Breach, and then lay down their Arms, the Officers from Captains upwards excepted, and be all made Prisoners of War: But at the End of 6 Months from the Date of the Capitulation, the said Marshal de Campo and Officers from Captains inclusive upwards shall have Liberty to return to their Army: And whereas the Officers of the Battallion of Spanish Guards are at least of equal Rank with Captains, they shall have the like Liberty. As shall likewise the Officers of the State Major of the Place, viz. the King's Lieutenant, the Serjeant Major, the chief Ingenier, the Adjutant Major, two inferior Adjutants, two Commissaries of Artillery, and the Commander thereof.

All the Officers and Soldiers that remain Prisoners shall have their Apparel and Baggage, and shall have Officers appointed to inspect that they be not insulted or injur'd.

No Soldier shall have any Violence offer'd him, to compel him to lift himself.

The Sick and Wounded, the Officers of the Hospital, and the Commissary of War, shall have Liberty to go, necessary Waggons being furnish'd them, to the first Place in the Jurisdiction of Castile, with 15 Horse to guard them; leaving the Commissary of War in Hostage till the Return of the said Horse, and all the Furniture of the Hospital shall go free.

The Officers from the Degree of Captains upwards, to whatever Place they be sent shall carry with them their Servants; who shall have their Liberty at the same time with their Masters.

The Chaplains and Surgeons of the Regiments, shall have Passports given them immediately to go to Castile, with their Goods and Baggage.

All Provisions and Ammunition of what Quantity soever, which shall be in the Place at the Hour of this Capitulation, including the Soldiers Cloaths that are not on their Backs, shall belong to the King of Portugal; and if any of the Provisions or Ammunition be not deliver'd the Capitulation to be void: But whilst the Garrison stays in the Place, they shall have necessary Subsistence out of those Provisions.

This Capitulation is made upon Condition that there shall be found in the Place sufficient Stores of Provisions and Ammunition to defend it 8 Days, regulating 30 Charges for each Cannon and Musquet: otherwise to be void.

All the Cropt Horses and Arms, which shall be found in the Place, shall belong to his Portugueze Majesty.

The Prior, Sub-Prior, and all the Religious of the Convent of St. Bento shall have two Months Time to resolve whether they will go or stay. Those that do stay shall enjoy the same Privileges as hitherto, and they that will depart shall have Passports given them, within the said time, to go where they please, with all their Goods and Effects, whether of sacred or common Use, and be allow'd necessary Waggons and a necessary Guard, they leaving requisite Hostages: And untill their Departure a Guard shall be set over them, to secure them and their Convent.

All the Inhabitants of the Place of what Quality or Degree soever, may in the space of 15 Days retire where they please; for which end necessary Passports shall be given them for their Security; and they that will stay shall enjoy their Privileges as hitherto without being molested.

Those of the Inhabitants which depart the Place in the aforesaid time of 15 Days, may carry along with them all their Effects, Moveables, Household-Goods and Money; what they carry being first registred; and those that will enjoy their Lands, may do it provided they retire into the Dominions of Portugal; and for the Transportation of their Goods, the necessary Waggons shall be furnish'd them, they paying for the same: Or they may sell or otherwise dispose of their Goods freely.

The Cattle of the Inhabitants and of the Hospitals which are in the Place, may be carried away by their present Owners.

The Soldiers and Officers which are made Prisoners on this Occasion, shall not be sent out of Portugal, unless hereafter any Portugueze Prisoners shall be sent out of Castile or Spain.

The rest of the Articles are of no Moment.

London, May 6.

'Yesterday Morning arriv'd a Mail from 'Lisbon, with Letters dated the 6th of May
'N. S. importing that my Lord Galway be'ing advanc'd to Placentia, the Magistrates
'came out and deliver'd the Keys to him;
'that he was receiv'd into the Place with
'great Aclamations; and design'd from
'thence to pursue his march to Madrid.
'By these Letters 'tis advis'd that the VVind
'had had blown very fair to carry Sir J. Leake up the Streights from about the 25th of April N. S. They had Advice at Lisbon that in the Attack made by the Duke of Anjou's Forces on Fort Montjuch the 22d of April N. S. the Enemy could make no Lodgment, but were repuls'd with a great Slaughter.

True and fluent Latin and French, according to Grammar-Rules, and to explain a Classic Author, are taught by Mr. Switerda to any Person of tolerable Capacity, who can be twice a Week with him (an Hour a time) in Whalebone Court, Bartholomew-Lane, next to the Blew-Ball, and Wednesdays and Saturdays from 4 till 8 in the Evening in Rood-lane, Fenchurch-street, at the White Lion. He will show some Gentlemen the true Art of teaching Children to speak Latin fluently, and so qualify them in one Year, that they may challenge any Teacher (Native or Foreigner) to make better Scholars (for speed and accuracy) than he shall. He teacheth twice a Week abroad, where Gentlemen and Ladies appoint him.

Whereas there has been an Explanation made of the Oxford Almanack for 1706. by the best Masters of Draught, and that it is evident to all, that understand Figures, how far the same bears upon the present Time: And whereas there is a Vindication published of that Almanack, with a specious Appearance of its being Genuine, the particulars of which, for want of Room, cannot be scann'd here. We do for the present only appeal to all that are proper and impartial Judges, whether the Explanation is not done according to Art, and has not hit the true and real Meaning of the Figures, 1. the Oxford Champion, or any other for him, suggest what he will, it being the effect of Fanatical Fury, and notwithstanding any other harshness he is pleas'd to use whatsoever. The Explanation is sold by B. Bragge at the Raven in Paternoster-Row, price 6d.
